Description

A 4-H Club exhibit at the State Fair. There are photographs displayed on a long table that illustrate the activities of the club: discussion groups, demonstrations, and project work through the foundations of church, school and home. The 4-H Club pledge is displayed on a small banner on the back of the exhibit. A display entitled "4-H Club members are learning to live in a changing world" is in the center background and a small globe is displayed under the words. A white picket fence is visible in front of the table.
