Description

This image depicts five workers in the back offices of Fogg's Store in Albuquerque, New Mexico. The group consists of two men and one woman at the desks on the right side of the frame and two women at the desk on the left side of the frame. Only four of the five people in this photograph have been identified. These people are Carlyle Smith, Connie Robison, Opal Smith, and Ellen Fogg. Everyone in this photograph is dressed in professional. The desks, cabinets, and walls of the room are all made of the same shade of brown wood. The desks are all topped with various papers, phones, files, and pens. The floor is made of white and red tiles while the roof is lined with rows of florescent lights.
