Description

This poster has a vertical rectangular shape, the paper is white with green text and it was made to advertise for a rally for President Jimmy Carter. At the top corners of the page is the word "free" in big block text. Underneath this is an invitation to see and hear Jimmy Carter, along with a picture of Carter from the torso up, also printed in green. The bottom half of the poster states when and where the rally is going to be held. There are two thick green lines with four white stars on both the left and right side of the poster that separate the information about time and place. At the bottom right corner is smaller font that notes that the poster was paid for by the New Mexico Democratic Party.
